

Fieldnote

A daily journaling app that turns your mood into a photo memory.

Problem: people want to reflect on their day but journaling apps feel like homework.

Solution: a 10-second voice note becomes a journal entry with an AI-generated photo of your mood.

Team: one founder, background in product design at a consumer social app.

Traction: 40,000 downloads, 3,200 weekly active users, freemium with a $4.99/mo tier.

Ask: raising a $1.5M pre-seed to grow to 250,000 downloads via TikTok creator partnerships.

Incorporated: Delaware C-corp, HQ in Los Angeles, CA.
